Southern Ocean Lodge Kangaroo Island, SA

This outstanding lodge has revolutionized accommodation on Kangaroo Island. Situated on a remote cliff-top in the southwest corner of the island, each of the lodge's 21 suites enjoys an uninterrupted view of the often tumultuous Southern Ocean – not to mention day beds, glass-walled bathrooms, sunken lounges and complimentary bars. Not your typical lodge, Southern Ocean has been designed to exist harmoniously with the environment and the result is contemporary, eco-chic interiors and furnishings, punctuated by local artwork. Daily itineraries ensure you become well acquainted with the island's abundant wildlife. When you're not being pampered in the Southern Spa Retreat, you will be meeting sea lions at Seal Bay, spying koalas along Koala Walk and enjoying canapés with the kangaroos at dusk. ## Capella Lodge Lord Howe Island, NSW

Sipping a mohito as the sun, like a golden coin, slips into the ocean beyond the emerald peaks of Mounts Gower and Lidgbird is the perfect way to end each day on this outrageously beautiful Pacific island. With no mobiles, no Internet and very few decisions to be made at Lord Howe's private nine-suite beach hideaway, you can do as you please – chill out alone on your private deck, take a dip in the plunge pool or head out to explore the island. Dive, snorkel, cycle, walk, kayak, fish or swim – but do be sure to stop at 6.00pm and join your fellow guests on the terrace for those cocktails, canapés and one more entrancing sunset.
