

FACT SHEET

Location

Widely regarded as Australia's Galapagos and home to abundant native wildlife and spectacular natural beauty, Kangaroo Island sits a mere 15km from the shores of mainland South Australia. As Australia's third largest, the Island is 155km long by 55km wide and covers some 4,500 sq km.

With 21 National and Conservation parks, Kangaroo Island has established itself as a premiere destination for nature lovers of all types. The Island's prolific wildlife includes kangaroos, koalas, seals and sea lions, echidnas and a variety of birdlife, all revelling in this "zoo without fences".

Climate

A destination for all seasons, Kangaroo Island's climate is as dynamic as the scenery – from season to season the Island yields fresh perspectives. The Mediterranean climate produces warm summers and temperate winters. Daytime temperatures range from 25-35°C in summer to 14-18°C in winter.

Accommodation

Twenty-one contemporary suites cantilever along the curve of the limestone cliffs, each with unbroken views of the Southern Ocean and dramatic coastal wilderness. Custom designed furniture, island-inspired textiles and soft furnishings offer luxurious lounging, while Kangaroo Island artists' works offer an inspiration. Watch the sun rise from the comfort of a well dressed king bed, bathe with a view and step into the landscape from the private outdoor terrace.

All suites feature lavish king beds, sunken lounge, dramatic glass-surround bathroom and outdoor terrace with occasional seating and daybed. Other features include walk-in robe, complimentary room bar, optional climate control, heated floors, wireless internet (limited bandwidth), music system, premium amenities, safe and telephone. Bathrobes, slippers, hairdryer and backpacks are provided along with twice-daily housekeeping and signature evening turndown service.

Access

Located at Hanson Bay on the Island's south-west coast, the Lodge is a 50 or 90 minute drive from the airport or ferry terminal respectively. Air Regional Express (Rex) provide regular daily flights (30 mins) from Adelaide (ADL) to Kangaroo Island – Kingscote (KGC). A 15kg luggage limit per person applies; any excess may be uplifted or stored at Adelaide Airport for a nominal fee. For those guests travelling between Southern Ocean Lodge and sister property Longitude 131° in the Northern Territory, Qantas operate an excellent daily service from Ayers Rock (AYQ) via Alice Springs (ASP) to Adelaide (ADL) with air connections to Kingscote (KGC) Kangaroo Island via Regional Express. To maximise your experience of each destination and for seamless air connections, a stay at Longitude 131° is recommended prior to Southern Ocean Lodge. Charter Flights Private charter flights are available from Adelaide to Kingscote. Flights can be arranged to/from other cities on application. Ferry SeaLink operate regular 45 minute ferry transfers between Cape Jervis on the mainland and Penneshaw on Kangaroo Island. Cape Jervis is a picturesque two hour drive from Adelaide. Car Hire Whilst island experiences are included in the tariff, hiring a car can be fun and allows guests to explore Kangaroo Island as they like. Many mainland car hire companies have restrictions regarding their vehicles being driven on Kangaroo Island, and/or boarding the ferry. It's best to check terms with the operator. A good option is to hire a car on the island; Budget and Hertz operate both at Kingscote Airport and from the ferry terminal at Penneshaw. For more detailed information view the Getting There & Away fact sheet.

Transfers

The Lodge operates transfers with fellow guests connecting with scheduled flights included in the tariff. Private transfers are available at additional cost and are required for connections with charter flights. Pre or post private touring is also an excellent transfer option.
